

Abstract of the Disclosure

Disclosed are methods and compositions of films using selected blends of primary and secondary fatty amide additives at critical ratios, which enable the primary fatty amides to interact favorably with the 5 secondary amides so as to provide controlled COF and other useful surface properties in polyolefin and other films.